	Where am I covered?
✓	This insurance covers your UK property at the location specified in the schedule.
	What are my obligations?
-	You must take all reasonable steps to prevent loss, damage or an accident and keep the buildings in a good state of repair.
-	You must comply with the 'Escape of Water Clause', which requires you to turn off the water supply to the home at the internal stop cock at the first available point of entry, and that you take one of the following actions: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• all water tanks must be emptied by leaving both hot and cold kitchen taps fully open and this must be done throughout the property.</li> <li>• the heating system must be set to operate continuously for 24 hours of each day (not controlled by any timing device) and the thermostat set at not less than 15 degrees Celsius and, where fitted, the loft hatch door left open.</li> </ul> Please note that outbuildings with water supplies must also benefit from one of the above actions.
-	You, or your appointed representative, must inspect the premises externally and internally at least once every 14 days, remove all mail, newspapers, flyers and such from the property and ensure the building and gardens of the home are suitably maintained in good condition. A visit record of dates, time and any observations must be recorded in a central inspection record. Each Inspection can alternatively be evidenced by taking one image of the exterior and one of the interior of the property. Presentation of which will be required in the event of a claim.
-	You must tell us: Within 48 hours of you becoming aware about any changes in the information you have provided to us (stated on your schedule) which happens before or during any period of insurance. At least 7 days before you start any structural works of any value and/or any non-structural works with a value exceeding £50,000. This also includes any demolition or planning permission requests.
-	In the event of a claim you must notify SJL or Questgates on the number given in your schedule as soon as possible giving full details of what has happened. If the claim is of either; malicious acts, violent disorder, riots, civil commotion, theft, attempted theft or lost property you must notify the police as soon as possible.
